

I am satisfied with Indiana's "do not call list" and I don't want to see it watered down through federal legislation. I am no longer bothered with telephone solicitors except the ones that are exempted and I would like to be able to stop them as well. If you pass a federal law on telemarketers, please word it to leave current laws such as Indiana has in place.